About the Fellowship Program

The Fellowship Program honors Oregon's professional artists and their achievements while supporting efforts to advance their careers. Arts Commission review panels look for outstanding talent, demonstrated ability and a commitment to the creation of new work.

The Arts Commission offers Fellowships in multiple artistic disciplines in alternating years:

- Even-numbered fiscal years: Visual Arts (including crafts, drawing, painting, photography, printmaking, sculpture, mixed media, new media, fashion, graphic design and industrial design).
- Odd-numbered fiscal years: Performing Arts (choreography, dance, music composition, music performance, theater, performance art, storytelling and puppetry).
- Funding partnerships with Literary Arts the Northwest Film Center support fellowships in Literary and Media Arts.

Artists from underserved communities, including (but not limited to) rural communities and communities of color, are especially encouraged to apply.

Award Amounts

Awards are up to $5,000, with no matching funds required. There is no pre-determined number of Fellowships to be awarded. The Arts Commission determines awards based on number of applications and available grant funds. There are limited resources and not all applicants receive funding.

Requirements & Limitations

Deadline

All applications must be submitted through our online portal: <https://oregon4biz.force.com/OAC/s/login/> no later than 5:00 p.m. on the deadline date to be considered for review. The Arts Commission is not responsible for late applications and cannot guarantee processing of applications submitted after the published deadline.

Eligibility

The Arts Commission has final determination on eligibility and may review eligibility at any time or request more information as necessary. At the time of application, all applicants must:

- Be 18 years of age or older;
- Have not received an Oregon Arts Commission Fellowship in the prior five years;
- Have been domiciled in Oregon for at least one year (domicile is a person's fixed, permanent and principal home for legal purposes);*
- Not be enrolled (either part- or full-time) in a creative degree program;
- Submit an individual application. While the Arts Commission acknowledges that many artists work collaboratively, awards will be made only to individual artists;
- Submit only one Fellowship application per calendar year.

* If selected for a Fellowship, you may be required to provide proof of your domicile status. Acceptable proof is described in Oregon Administrative Rule 735-016-0030.

How Applications are Reviewed

Arts Commission staff reviews submitted applications for eligibility, completeness and accuracy. Applications that meet program requirements are accepted for further review. Applications are then reviewed by a panel of professionals with experience in the arts and other fields relevant to the grant program. The Arts Commission considers panel recommendations for funding and determines final awards.

Documentation of the artist's work is the most important component of the application and artists are strongly advised to submit well-documented and clearly identified work samples. Fellowships are awarded primarily based on the creative excellence presented in the applicant's work samples. All work samples should be clear, legible and/or audible reproductions of the applicant's work.

Membership on review panels changes every year. Applicants should not assume that panelists have any prior knowledge of their work. To nominate a potential panelist, fill out a nomination form.

Review Criteria

The following review criteria will be used to evaluate applications:

- Aesthetic quality of the applicant's submitted artwork;
- Artists' sustained professional achievement; and
- Potential for the artist's future contribution to the field.

Application Materials

Application Questions

Artist Statement (max 2,500 characters): Describe your artistic practice, including particular conceptual, aesthetic or material directions you are concerned with or interested in pursuing. You may wish to discuss your process, intent, artistic development or connection to the region.

File Share URL: Additional Materials (described below) must be submitted via a single shareable URL that links to a Dropbox folder, Vimeo album, Google Drive or similar file sharing service. You will copy and paste the link into the application. If you cannot enclose all files in one folder/link, which is strongly preferred, link instead to a PDF that describes files and provides individual links.

Password: Provide a password if one is required to access the Additional Materials link.

Additional Materials

The following additional materials are required (see “File Share URL” above for submission instructions):

- Resume: A PDF file outlining professional accomplishments related to your artistic career (no more than two pages). If you do not have an artist resume, you may provide a narrative statement that describes your artistic career and professional accomplishments.
- Work Sample Description: A PDF document with the following information for each sample: File name, password if required, title, date, medium, measurements, total time or page length, role of the artist in production, location and facility of production and additional production credits. If the work sample reflects work with another individual, a description of the applicant's role in the work must be provided (i.e. dancer in red).
- Up to 10 Work Samples (total combined running time of all audio and video submissions not to exceed 15 minutes):
 - Still or moving image files depicting individual pieces, installations designs, models or products.
 - Audio files with formats: AIFF, WAV, XMF and MP3.

Assistance

Para asistencia en español llame al 971-345-1641.

Assistance with technical requirements and application scope is available from Arts Commission staff prior to the application deadline. Applicants may also seek feedback after funding decisions have been made. See Contact Information below.

Accessibility

Upon request, Arts Commission application materials will be made available in an alternate format such as Braille, large type, or audiotape. For applicants who are hearing-impaired and require TDD assistance, please call 800-735-2900.

Appeal Process

The Arts Commission recognizes that procedural errors may occur in the application process and is committed to acknowledging errors and rectifying the effects. Appeals may not be made on the basis of an applicant's disagreement with an assessment of how the application met the review criteria, the judgment of a review panel or the amount of the award.

Applicants considering an appeal should contact the Arts Commission for guidance (see Contact Information below). Letters of appeal must be submitted to the Arts Commission Executive Director within 30 days of being notified of whether you were selected to receive funding. Appeals are reviewed and acted on by the Arts Commission board. Appeals may result in an approval of an award or an increase in the award amount if the applicant can satisfactorily document that the application was misrepresented or improperly reviewed through no fault of the applicant. If the appeal is supported by the Arts Commission board, funds will be awarded only if they are available. All decisions made by the Arts Commission board or committees are final.
